

Volunteer Role Description Legal Fellowship Program

Legal Fellow, Community Education

Mother's Choice seeks a volunteer Legal Fellow to support community education child protection initiatives at Mother's Choice to equip and empower front line professionals working with children and youth to be the voice for vulnerable children. Reporting to the Manager of Community Education (Child Protection), the Legal Fellow will play a key role in our mission to educate and mobilize our community so that all children can be in a safe, permanent and loving family and avoid crises pregnancy.

The Fellow will be responsible for engaging the community (including our university partners) in researching and presenting papers on proven policies and best practices at both individual and systemic level, and developing training for front line professionals to equip them with the skills and knowledge to better safeguard our children in out-of-home residential care. The ideal candidate should have a deep commitment to our Mother's Choice vision to see every child in a loving family, a familiarity with the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, and experience in comparative research in child rights law and issues.

The Legal Fellow will be a key member of the Community Education team, driving to educate and mobilize our community to become an agent for change in practices and policies so that all children can experience safe, permanent and loving families and avoid teenage pregnancy.

About Mother's Choice

Mother's Choice is a local charity serving the many children without families and pregnant teenagers in Hong Kong. We join hands with our community to give hope and change the life stories of vulnerable girls and babies. Our vision is to see every child in a loving family.

Each year in Hong Kong, thousands of teenage girls face crisis pregnancy with no support, and thousands of children are in need of a family for a number of reasons including neglect, abuse, abandonment, or family breakdown. We're here to help the most vulnerable in our community by providing high-quality services for children, youth and families, and actively providing ways to prevent the problem.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Propose, develop, and follow through activities and events to engage key stakeholders to exchange practice wisdoms and experience on work with vulnerable children in Hong Kong to identify gaps and issues.
- In support of the Community Education Manager, work with Mother's Choice colleagues to equip them to use the law in advocating for the permanency for the children in care.
- Collaborate with partners to conduct comparative research, draft recommendations and present papers on proven systems, policies and practices that provide greater oversight and safeguards to better protect vulnerable children.
- With reference to models of best practices, develop a strategy for engaging and mobilizing community stakeholders to become role models in their disciplines and form a collaborative support system to ensure children are in safe, loving, and permanent families.
- Conduct comparative legal research: analyse relevant legislative ordinances that may impact children and compare Hong Kong legislation and practice with other countries' best practices.
- Engage in local platforms such as consultation forums, Legco (Government) sub-committees meetings and other related opportunities to be the voice for children in out-of-home residential care.
