Casework

- Give assessment, treatment, and evaluation to children with muscle strength, physical function, range of movement, and mobility concerns for children in Child Care Home and our outreach service.
- Prepare Individual Education Program (IEP) for child care workers/carers/parents to work individually with the children. Evaluate and record progress and update IEP.
- Advise specialist equipment for children to maintain and improve physical function.
- Advice on environmental alterations to enhance mobility.
- Liaise/collaborate with external professionals such as physiotherapists from the hospital regarding case management.
- Supervise and train child care workers, carers, and parents in the delivery of therapeutic exercise

Administration

- Learn and utilize the Mothers Choice reporting system for case notes and update information regularly.
- Prepare written reports for general recording, medical appointments, follow-up clinics, kindergarten, adoption agency, etc.
- Procure and maintain equipment as necessary.
- Conduct training to staff, parents, carers, and volunteers.

Internal Liaison

- Communicate with multidisciplinary team and child care workers regarding treatment schedule and update.
- Attend Case Review meetings and provide case summary, assessment, and progress charts as relevant.
- Attend staff meetings as arranged.

Personal Development

- Participate in staff training programs and other relevant professional meetings as required.
- Undertake professional development activities to ensure update of knowledge.

Other duties as required

Requirements

- Bachelor degree in Physiotherapy or above, or equivalent;
- Registered in Supplementary Medical Professions Council in Hong Kong with valid practicing certificate;
- With a minimum of two years of experience in working with young children with special needs preferred;
- Excellent command of spoken and written English and Chinese (preferred);
- Have excellent communication and interpersonal skill;
- Able to work in a multi-cultural environment;
- Must share the commitment of Mother's Choice in upholding the safety and protection of children as paramount.
